

Air Quality Town Meeting

November 1, 2007

5 pm – 7 pm

COG 3rd floor Board Room

AGENDA

Particles and Climate Change: Integrated Strategies

Time	Topic	Speaker
5:00	Welcome, Introductions	Jill Engel-Cox , Chair, AQPAC
5:05	Particle Pollution and GHG Emissions in the Washington Metro region (Overview)	Joan Rohlf, Chief, Air Quality Planning
5:15	Panel Discussion: As a region and as individuals, how important is it that we clean the air and reduce greenhouse gases, and how can we do both? (10 minutes per person) Facilitator : Hon. Nancy Floreen, Chair, Metropolitan Washington Air Quality Committee and Climate Change Steering Committee (CCSC)
	Panelists:
	1. Climate Change: Health Concerns
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Brenda Afzal, University of MD School of Nursing, Environmental Health Education Center</li></ul>
	2. Particles and Health Concerns
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Dr. Bailus Walker, Howard University College of Medicine</li></ul>
	3. Effects on Environment from Particles and Climate Change
	Elizabeth Martin, National Resource Defense Council (NRDC)
	4. Student Perspective on Climate Change and Actions We Can Take
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Varun Bansal, Chairman, Global Warming/Energy Committee, Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology, Alexandria, VA</li></ul>
6:00	Audience Participation (comments) (Elected officials on MWAQC will join the panel in responding to questions) Attendees/interested parties, 3 minutes per person
7:00	Wrap-up	Hon. Nancy Floreen