Agenda Item 6

Presentation Items

- Federal PBPP Rulemaking Update
- Transit Asset Management (TAM) Update
- Future Meetings

PBPP Rulemaking: Public Transportation Agency Safety Plans rule – Expected in October 2017

- The National Public Transportation Safety Plan final rule finalized the transit safety performance measures.
- The Public Transportation Agency Safety Plan, which will specify the transit safety target-setting process and timeline, is still pending. (Draft: 2/15/16)

Transit Asset Management (TAM) Update

- ❖ The Transportation Planning Board adopted initial TAM targets for the region at its June 21, 2017 meeting.
- Starting October 2017: Providers of public transportation report performance data and targets in the National Transit Database (NTD) within four months after their fiscal year end:
 - Optional reporting for this year, e.g., FY 2017 data and FY 2018 targets due October 31, 2017 (if fiscal year July-June).
 - Mandatory reporting for future years, e.g., FY 2018 data and FY 2019 targets by October 31, 2018 (if fiscal year July-June).
- ❖ If agencies are establishing FY 2018 targets – starting this October – please transmit to TPB.

FY 2018 – TPB Transit Planning Activities

- 2045 Visualize Long Range Plan
 - Funded component
 - Unfunded component (Long Range Plan Task Force)
