

You're invited to EPA's 2014 ENERGY STAR® National Building Competition: Team Challenge!

Team up to Save Energy and Water!

Save energy, water, and money by participating in EPA's 2014 ENERGY STAR National Building Competition! This year, compete as a team and collaborate to find huge savings. Can't field a team this year? That's okay! Your building can still compete individually. The teams and buildings with the greatest energy or water savings will be recognized by EPA.
