

You are cordially invited to attend and participate in the...

Maryland Transportation Operations Summit

Better Mobility Through Improved Transportation Operations

Location: The Conference Center at the Maritime Institute
692 Maritime Boulevard, Linthicum Heights, MD 21090

Date: Thursday, May 1, 2008

Time: 8:00 am to 4:30 pm

Join representatives and practitioners from federal, state, regional, and local transportation agencies at the Maryland Transportation Operations Summit. Share your ideas on the current status of and visions for enhancing traffic, travel, and transit operations in Maryland and surrounding states.

Panel discussions will cover:

- Operations from a Leadership Perspective
- Operations from a Management Perspective
- National and other regional initiatives in operations, featuring Steve Lockwood and Phil Tarnoff

The afternoon Breakout Session will be your opportunity to discuss and share information on the following topics:

- Managing Congestion & Planning for Operations
- Incident & Emergency Management
- Regional & Multi-Modal Coordination
- Homeland Security & Transportation Operations
- Travel Safety
- Public Information
- Interoperability

Invited presenters include:

- John Porcari, Secretary, Maryland Department of Transportation
- Ron Freeland, Executive Secretary, Maryland Transportation Authority
- Jeff Paniati, Administrator, Federal Highway Administration
- Neil Pedersen, Administrator, Maryland State Highway Administration
- James Simpson, Executive Administrator, Federal Transit Administration
- Paul Wiedefeld, Administrator, Maryland Transit Administration

There is no cost for participants to attend the Summit, but pre-registration is recommended and appreciated. Space is limited; please register early. Registration and additional information are available through <http://MTOS.eventbrite.com>.

Summit Support provided by:

