

ACPAC Member Backgrounder

Bill Butler

Environmental Engineer GenOn Energy

GenOn Energy

- Large Independent Power Producer in the United States with 24,700 MW of Generation and 3400 Employees
- Located in the Northeast, Mid-Atlantic, Central, Southeast and California with HQ in Houston (12 States)
- Portfolio of Power Generation includes Base Load , Intermediate and Peaking Units Using Coal, Natural Gas and Oil
- We have experienced leadership, dedicated team members, financial strength and a solid commitment to Safety, the Environment, and Operational Excellence

GenOn and the Washington DC Area

- Four Power plants in the area including 3 in MD and 1 in VA fueled by coal, oil and/or NG (5200 MW)
- The 3 MD Coal plants spent $1.6 B on MD Healthy Air Act controls, including SCRs for NOX and Scrubbers for SO<sub>2</sub>, PM, and Mercury.
- The VA plant runs under a comprehensive operating permit issued in 2008. The plant has good SO<sub>2</sub>, NO<sub>x</sub>, and PM controls, with additional PM and dust controls expected in accordance with our agreement with the City of Alexandria

Personal Duties

- Assigned to Environmental Policy Division
- Responsible for:
  - Tracking emerging regulations on Federal, Regional, State and Local Level
  - Modeling Interpretation
  - Administrator of Company's Environmental Compliance System
  - On site Meteorologist

GenOn.

QUESTIONS???