For their continued funding support of the Commuter Connections work programs.

Both COG and WABA thank all individuals and organizations which helped make the Washington, DC metropolitan region Bike to Work Day 2022 a success.

BACKGROUND and EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Bike to Work Day has been held annually in the Washington metropolitan region for over a decade and was originally started by the Washington Area Bicyclist Association with a main rallying point or pit stop in downtown DC. In September 2000, The National Capital Region Transportation Board (TPB's) Commuter Connections program, housed at the Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments, partnered with WABA to form a regional Bike to Work Day Steering Committee to examine the feasibility of adding additional Bike to Work Day pit stops or rallying points throughout the region in 2001, thus creating a larger awareness of using cycling to work as a viable commuting alternative. Since that first involvement with Bike to Work Day in 2001, annual registrations for the event have grown exponentially over the years. In 2020, the event was canceled due to the COVID pandemic, reinstated in 2021, and is gradually looking to rebound to pre-COVID levels.

Several bicycles were raffled off and all the registrants who attended received a free BTWD 2022 T-shirt.

Bicyclists enjoyed free T-shirts, snacks, participated in prize drawings, and heard live bands as well as music and listened and talked to elected officials.

The success of the marketing promotion campaign relied upon targeting of employer and commuter audiences, identification of cost-effective media, crafting key messages, and procuring giveaway items such as t-shirts designed to attract commuters to try bicycling to work.

The Steering Committee's resources for Bike to Work Day 2022, included:

- Web site designed and maintained by Commuter Connections.
- Posters and rack cards developed and printed by Commuter Connections.
- Promoting the event through WABA's membership.
- A comprehensive campaign produced and placed by Commuter Connections.
- Outreach to employers through a direct mail and email marketing campaign by Commuter Connections.
- An article in the Commuter Connections employer newsletter.
- Local marketing efforts by the various pit stop managers.
- An e-mail to previous year's participants by Commuter Connections.
- Banners designed and printed by Commuter Connections.
- A public affairs outreach effort through the Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments Office of Communications and WABA.
- The design and distribution of free t-shirts by Commuter Connections.
- Donated bicycles for the regional raffle from BicycleSPACE, and Bikes@Vienna as well as Three Points Cycles.

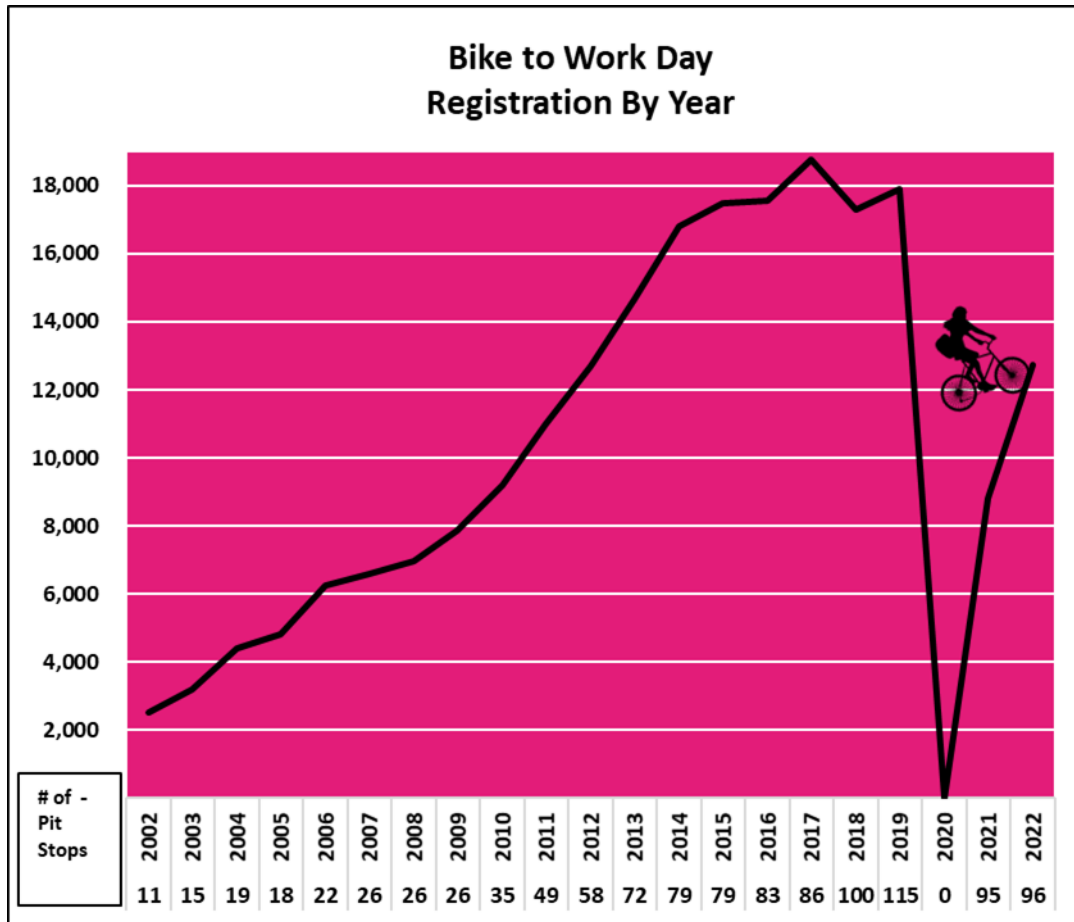

In addition, 19 confirmed bicycling convoy routes were identified by WABA along with route leaders who assisted novice and experienced cyclists through the routes. Each route traveled to a pit stop where cyclists received free refreshments, t-shirts and other giveaways. Many pit stops had additional activities for bicyclists and are described later in this report.

Since 2000, the COG/TPB's Commuter Connections program has worked to increase awareness of bicycling to work as a viable commute option by joining with the WABA in their efforts to promote and coordinate the region's annual Bike to Work Day event. Commuter Connections created and maintains a regional marketing effort that helped to increase the number of cyclists participating in the yearly event from 1,100 in 2001 to a peak of more than 18,000 in 2017. Although biking to work accounts for a small percentage of the overall regional commute mode split, bicycling helps reduce traffic congestion, improves air quality, and provides a healthy commute alternative for those commuters who choose to use it as a sustainable means of transportation to and from work.

Since 2006, the Bike to Work Day Event has a budget line item for the Commuter Connections Work Program. Commuter Connections is funded by the District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia, and U.S. Departments of Transportation.

We are so thankful that everyone took the time out to register and come out to support our pit stop! We had our live raffle back this year with a wonderful new DJ for us that kept the morning upbeat and positive! Our Mayor, Justin Wilson and Councilman John Chapman stopped by to support and helped us with our raffle drawings!

We want to thank our wonderful sponsors below that have donated the gift cards and gifts for the raffle! We couldn't do this without them and are just so thankful for all our wonderful businesses and group organizations!

Alexandria Conte's Bikes, Pedego Bikes, Wheel Nuts: This year, due to COVID restrictions, the City of Alexandria chose to spread out the pit stops rather than have the event at Market Square. Since we were unable to have vendors participate, we thought it would be great to have the t-shirt pick up location at three local bike shops. We chose Big Wheel Bikes, Conte's Bike Shop, and Pedego Bikes as the locations. The owners were excited to be able to participate in Bike to Work Day. We had 218 registrants among the three pit stops. Although it was different from previous years, the people who stopped by enjoyed it and were glad that Bike to Work Day was back.

MD State Delegate Ariana Kelly once again served as the official Bike to Work Day emcee. This year's program included Proclamations from the State Comptroller and Montgomery County. There were special appearances by Montgomery County Council President Gabe Alborno and County Council At-Large member Hans Reimer. The complete list of speakers included:

- Comptroller Peter Franchot

Food and refreshments were donated from many different Bethesda businesses. Attendees had their choice of dozens of prizes including various gift certificates, bike accessories, NFL team merchandise, hotel stays, and bicycles were provided by Griffin and Terrapin Cycles. Raffle prizes were awarded several times an hour. There were also prizes awarded via a photo contest. Several businesses were provided tables with representatives at the event, including: Coalition for the Capital Crescent Trail, MDOT Op Lanes, Bibibop, The Barrett, Potomac Pedalers, EV Co-Op, Bethesda Green, Silver, Griffin Cycle, and Terrapin Cycle. Baked goods were donated by Bethesda Bagels and The Red Bandana Bakery. Silver provided coffee, yogurt parfaits, and a prize wheel for promotional giveaways. Drink More Water donated jugs of water and lent out water dispensers, so participants could fill water bottles instead of picking up bottled water.

Several businesses helped to promote Bike to Work Day in Bethesda. Professional event photography was done by Danny Peck. Music was provided by DJ Sean Watson.

There were officially 436 registrants prior to May 20th. 201 participants picked up a T-shirt at the event, while many others stopped by the office to pick them up.

College Park City Hall: The City of College Park hosted its morning pit stop at City Hall Plaza from 6:30 to 8:30 am. There were 117 registrants.

Columbia Heights Plaza: Temperatures reached nearly 90°F / 32°C on a bright, sunny Washington afternoon, as 107 of 326 registered bicyclists converged on the Columbia Heights Plaza in Northwest DC; an additional 35 non-registered and 12 “refugees” from earlier ‘pit-stops’ also arrived. Quantities of water and fruits were available throughout the ‘pit-stop’ hours, fueling cheerful interactions among cyclists, WABA, District Bridges, and PEPCo representatives, and a half-dozen DC 2022 Primary political candidates.

As with other ‘pit-stops’, T-shirts were the questionable items, since no ‘Large’ sizes were available, and ‘Medium’ and ‘X-large’ sizes were in short-supply. We received an infusion of left-over ‘Small’ and ‘2X-large’-sized shirts from the Adams Morgan morning ‘pit-stop’, which enabled CoHi to complete the day with a handful of those sizes remaining.

Both the DC and regional maps were very popular (thanks goDCgo), and the water-bottles (from Bicycle Space) had disappeared mid-way through the event! Once again, Park Triangle displayed the “Bike to Work Day 2022” banner on their building South façade over-looking the plaza.

Thanks to Giant Foods for their donation of bananas, mandarins, and 8oz bottles of water. Dos Gringos and Haydees restaurants provided coupons as prizes, courtesy of District Bridges.

Deep appreciation to our valuable local volunteers: Christina, Jackie, Leslie, Trina (check-in), and Zenia (assistance with set-up!) and Eric (full-time event)!

Once again, a very successful festival, much appreciated by the participating cyclists!

Dumfries: The event was held at the Dumfries Town Hall from 7:30am to 9:30am. There were 12 registrants for the pit stop.

Dupont Circle: No sophomore slump for us—our 2nd pit stop for Bike to Work Day hosted by the American Geophysical Union was a hit!

We had more than 200 riders registered for our Dupont Circle pit stop, and spirits were high with visitors to the plaza. Dawson’s Market brought coffee & muffins, and Bethesda Bagels offered overflowing bags of bagels. New features this year included lively music and a Conte’s Bikes repair crew (from near Logan Circle) doing on-site bike maintenance. We also raffled our NASA calendars every few minutes as door prizes, and our winners seemed genuinely thrilled.

Lots of riders commented that they’d long admired our planet plaza, including a few Earth and space scientists, and a lot also said they never knew we were here before today! Several wanted to follow up and book a tour inside our AGU Net-Zero-Energy building soon. More than one rider said they thought we were in the running for best pit stop, which we were happy to hear even if just a few personal opinions!

Many thanks to the whole team who made this happen, both on-site today and in the planning stages—so proud of our pit crew! Thanks to our AGU leadership and sponsors for supporting this venture, and we look forward to ever-better gatherings on the coming Bike to Work Days next year and beyond Fairfax Government Center: The event was held at the Fairfax County Government Center from 6:30am to 9am. There were 66 registrants for the pit stop.

Fairfax City: The Fairfax City Downtown pit stop was held in Old Town Square from 6am to 9am. Participation at this pit stop continues to increase from year to year, with 135 people registered at Fairfax City Downtown in 2022. Participants were able to get a quick bike tune-up from Trek Bikes Fairfax and could “Spin to Win” one of the raffle prizes sponsored by local businesses. Participants also enjoyed a variety of pre-packaged snacks and fresh fruit, and picked up their BTWD t-shirts and giveaway items such as reflective stickers, bike maps, water bottles, and other goodies donated by local businesses, the CUE bus system, and the City Fire Department. City staff also chatted with attendees upcoming city projects and encouraged people to fill out a “Bike Month Bingo” card. Raffle prizes, snacks, and other items were sponsored by several local businesses and organizations including Trek Bikes Fairfax, Twins Ace Hardware, High Side, Ornerly Beer Company, Mundy Development, the Fairfax City Environmental Sustainability Committee, and the Fairfax City Economic Development Authority.

Fair Lakes: The event was held Fair Lakes Center from 6am to 9am. There were 45 registrants for the pit stop Fairlington Center: The event was held at Fairlington Center in front of Great Harvest Bread from 6:30am to 9:00am. There were 51 registrants.

- Greenbelt Sunoco provided free coffee to bikers stopping at their shop.

Herndon: Herndon Parks and Recreation Department staff planned and executed this year's pitstop without the traditional support of our bike shop partners, and typical sponsors and guest organizations. Riders did gratefully grab bottled water and prepackaged breakfast treats both morning and evening. T-shirts, as always, were highly coveted and the raspberry color was a hit! Since we open at 5:30 a.m. we traditionally see the long haul riders, but this year, the early birds were much fewer in number. Several teleworking riders took a recreational ride on the W&OD trail before stopping in, just to feel deserving of their t-shirt. With over 330 registered, we were down about 100 from recent years, but most turned out and all were excited, grateful, and overjoyed to be a part of Bike to Work Day!

There were more than 125 cyclists that participated. Vision Zero Prince George's and the Be Seen Be Alert and Be Safe Bicycle and Pedestrian Safety Campaign were Bronze Sponsors for the 2022 Bike to Work Day.

The Pit Stop provided cyclists with 2 Bike to Work Day Convoys. Both left from the Largo/Kettering/Perrywood Community Center in Prince George's County, MD.

- Ray Ferguson & the Beechtree Pedalers led the Advanced Cyclists Convoy at 7:30 AM.
- M-NCPPC Park Rangers led the Beginner/Intermediate Cyclists Convoy at 8:00 AM.

The Prince George's County Department of Public Works and Transportation displayed Variable Message Signs (VMS) with safety messaging along the roads leading to and from the Bike to Work Day Site and provided LED front and rear bike lights for cyclists. M-NCPPC Park Police provided additional security near the Pit Stop site and vicinity.

District of Columbia

Washington: This Friday the district is celebrating Bike to Work Day, encouraging locals to reduce their carbon footprint and get some exercise to boot, WUSA-TV reports. Another incentive: The price of gas in the Washington metro area is at a 10-year high, with the cost per gallon in the district averaging $4.84 as of Wednesday, according to Gas Buddy. The Bike to Work Day tradition is coordinated by a network of transportation organizations in the D.C. area called Commuter Connections, as well as the Washington Area Bicyclist Association. The first 15,000 people who register online to participate are eligible to receive a free T-shirt at any of the event's pit stops. There are more than 100 pit stops for Bike to Work Day, located throughout D.C., Maryland and Virginia. Those who register will be entered into a raffle to win a free bike donated by BicycleSPACE, Three Points Cycles and Bikes@Vienna. Those looking for a biking buddy can join a free Bike to Work convoy led by experienced biking commuters. And Capital Bike Share is offering free unlimited rides of up to 45 minutes per trip on its standard bikes. Its e-bikes will be offered at 10 cents per minute. Bike to Work Day in D.C. started with a small group of riders in 2001, and by 2017 the day saw an all-time high of 18,700 people participating.

NEWS RELEASE

Full speed ahead: Bike to Work Day 2022 registration now open

Mar 28, 2022

Bike to Work Day (BTWD) is rolling full speed ahead, as a regained sense of community, free T-shirts, and a chance to win a free bicycle will attract thousands of commuters to participate in the regional event on Friday, May 20.

Co-organized by Commuter Connections and the Washington Area Bicyclist Association (WABA), the free, annual event is a celebration of bicycling as a green, low-cost commuting option. This year's event will feature 96 pit stops throughout Washington, DC, suburban Maryland, and Northern Virginia filled with raffles, food, and other giveaways—plus a free Bike to Work Day T-shirt for the first 15,000 registrants to attend.

New and veteran bicycle commuters alike are encouraged to take the leap and register today. Registering for BTWD 2022 is fast, free, and easy at www.biketoworkmetrodc.org or by calling (800) 745-RIDE.

“It's time to come together as a community,” said Nicholas Ramfos, Commuter Connections Director. “Bike to Work Day gives us the opportunity to jumpstart our day with a fun, healthy commuting option, all while reducing traffic congestion on roadways that are getting crowded once again.”

For those who wish to travel together, experienced volunteer bicycle commuters will lead bicycle convoys on the day of the event. Convoy starting point information will be available on the event website.

This year's event has been made possible by the generosity of several regional sponsors, including: Gold Sponsors ICF and UrbanStems; Silver Sponsors National Landing, Bike Arlington, BicycleSpace, Verra, City Dental DC, and Bilton Law Firm.

Although Bike to Work Day happens only once a year, Commuter Connections offers a wide range of services and resources year-round for all commuters, including the Guaranteed Ride Home \(GRH\) Program that provides peace of mind with a free ride home when one of life's unexpected emergencies arises. Follow Commuter Connections on Twitter at @BikeToWorkDay and Facebook at @BikeToWorkDayMetroDC and use #BTWD2022 or #BTWDC to join the conversation.
