One Paragraph Overview

- 2017 National Capital Region (NCR) Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) Full-Scale Exercise (FSE) – The 2017 NCR SWAT FSE, which is scheduled to occur on April 26, 2017, is one (1) of two (2) exercises in the 2016-2017 NCR SWAT Exercise Series focused on exercising the NCR Coordinated Tactical Response Plan. Six (6) venues will host and support exercise play. Multiple SWAT teams will stage at and respond to a complex coordinated attack at each of the six (6) different host venues. SWAT teams will encounter various scenario vignettes, which may include: active threat scenario, ambush scenario, hostage scenario, barricade scenario, and/or IED scenario. SWAT team training and operational equipment will be provided and used by the individual SWAT teams. Fire and EMS personnel will also play in the exercise and address triage and treatment scenarios. Fire and EMS training and operational equipment will be provided and used by the responding Fire and EMS personnel. Approximately fifty (50) - one hundred (100) participants are expected at each venue, to include players, observers, controllers and evaluators.
