10:00 A.M. - 1:00 P.M.
COG Building, Ronald F. Kirby Training Center

GUEST SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

Ahmad Abu-Khalaf is a research analyst at Enterprise Community Partners, where he focuses on conducting research and analysis of affordable housing, community development and federal transit-oriented development policies. Prior to joining Enterprise's public policy team, he held several positions as a researcher and designer. Ahmad earned his Master of Science in planning from the University of Arizona, Tucson, where he discovered an interest in the connections between affordable housing, public transportation and equity.

Rachel Reilly is the Director of Impact Investing at Enterprise Community Partners where she raises debt capital from socially-responsible investors through the Enterprise Community Impact Note – a $100 million offering. She also leads public policy efforts to expand private investment in communities, including Enterprise's engagement with Opportunity Zones. Rachel has a Master's degree in Real Estate Development from the University of Maryland, and served two terms as an Advisory Neighborhood Commissioner in Washington, D.C.
