

The Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments
in collaboration with Enterprise
Community
Partners Inc.,
District of Columbia Department of the Environment,
and the U.S.
Environmental Protection Agency
Present

SAVE the DATE

March 3, 2009

Green

and

Affordable

?

Green Affordable Housing & Jobs Forum:

Protecting the Most Vulnerable While Expanding Washington's Green Economy

JW Marriott
1331 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C.

Check-in begins at 8:15 a.m.
Forum: 9:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. with a Reception to follow

Paid registration is required and is open until February 26, 2009. Please register at:

www.mwcog.org/greenhousing

For more information or to inquire about available vendor space, contact George Nichols at gnichols@mwcog.org, or 202.962.3355

Featured Discussions:

- What are the Costs and Benefits of Affordable Green Housing?
- Role of Government in Transforming the Market in Making Affordable Green Housing
- The Green Economy: Jobs and Economic Development Potential
- Green Collar Jobs in the Housing Sector