Georgette Jones

"The connection we had-that takes a lifetime to find."

- Nicholas Clarke, fiancé

"Georgette went to the convenience store across the street from our house. On her way back home she was struck by a speeding SUV driver. When I got to the hossital, the doctor told me she had passed. I just couldn't believe that when I came home that day and kinsed her on the forehead that it was the last time I was going to see her and touch her. Our son-he never got to know her."

Ren Werbin

"My world completely changed. It will never be like it was before the crash."

- Ren Werbin, crash survivor

"I remember walking across the street, in a crosswalk. And then the next thing I kinew, I woke up on the ground. It was very unsettling to go from being healthy and athletic to being completely dependent on others. I'm fightling the anger, fear, and anxiety that came with it. You look at a cup of coffee differently, you look at your relationships, you look at each morning in a very different way."

Christina Morris-Ward

"She didn't get to go to college, to live her life. It's not okay."

- Gwen Ward, mother

"My 15-year old buby was struck and killed as she crossed the streed on her way to school. I got to the hospital. I went over to kiss her, but she had already passed. Parents should not have to worry about, whether their children will make it home safely. No family should have to bear that kind of pain. I'm going to miss her smile forever."
