

Please join us for the Clean Air Partners Annual Meeting on Thursday, May 20, from 6:00 to 9:00 pm at the:

Maryland Science Center

601 Light Street, Baltimore, MD

6:00-7:00 PM – Board Meeting (Approve FY 2011 Work Plan and Budget, Board Nominations)

7:00-9:00 PM – Awards Presentations and Private Reception

Local television meteorologists DC's Howard Bernstein (WUSA Channel 9) and Baltimore's Justin Berk (WMAR Channel 2) will present the awards to the winners of the 2010 Air Quality Poster Contest and recognize our science fair winners!

The Maryland Science Center was voted by Parents Magazine as one of the Top 10 Science Centers and Top 10 Children's Museums. Attendees will have the opportunity to privately view the "Follow the Blue Crab" exhibit following the meeting and awards presentations.
