Healthy Hearts ... One Step at a Time!

Walking is an easy yet effective way to be physically active. Start with some light stretching exercises. Begin at a gradual pace. Walk with your chin up and shoulders slightly back. Roll your weight forward from heel to toe. To burn more fat, swing your arms as you go. To burn more calories, take quicker - not longer- steps.

Adults who have not been active for a while should start slowly. Gradually build up to the recommended 30 minutes a day of moderate-level activity. Begin with a 10-15 minute walk three times a week. As you become more fit, increase the sessions to every day, and lengthen your session or increase your pace.

TRAIL

By regularly walking along this trail, you can improve your health and increase your longevity.

The trail, 0.8 mile in length, starts near the King Dairy Mooseum and continues past a championship miniature golf course, a tot lot, Splash Playground and Central Park Pond where there is shoreline access to fishing and a model boat launch.

Bronze markers are embedded in the path every 1/10 of a mile. When you walk across the marker labeled "0.3" for example, you have walked 3/10 of a mile from the trailhead.

If you are interested in longer walks, there are two other trails in the park that are over a mile: the Succorplex Loop Trail (1.4 miles) and the South Germantown Perimeter Trail (2.5 miles).

Welcome.....

To your heart smart trail!
By regularly walking along this beautiful mile-long trail, you can improve your health and increase your longevity. The trail follows a popular pathway in Brookside Gardens, a 50-acre public display garden that is open year-round, sunrise to sunset.

The trail begins at the rear of the Visitors Center. Bronze markers are embedded in the path every 1/10 of a mile. When you walk across the marker labeled "0.3," for example, you have walked 3/10 of a mile from the trailhead.

Use the "Walking Log" to keep track of the date, the distance you've traveled and the time it took.

Take The First Step
The Heart Smart Trail awaits you. Go ahead...take your first step toward a healthier lifestyle!
