

Solar Ready II Initiative

Solar Ready II | Mid-America Regional Council | National Association of Regional Councils | Meister Consultants Group, Inc. | Council of State Governments

Solar Ready KC Initiative

- Reduced market barriers and soft costs
- Trained over 750 regional stakeholders
- Conducted a financing inventory
- Established 16 best management practices
 - Streamline Permitting
 - Standardization of Permit Fees
 - Notification of Utility
 - Pre-Qualify Plans and Installers
 - Improvement of Solar Access
 - Improvement of Solar Readiness
 - Engage Developers and Homeowner Associations

◦ http://www.marc.org/environment/energy/solar_ready_kc.html

Solar Ready II Initiative Objectives

- Expand the Solar Ready KC Initiative
 - Achieve widespread process standardization
 - Impact on reduction of market barriers and soft costs nationwide
 - Coordinate 9 regional campaigns
 - Conduct comprehensive review of regional solar resources
 - Engage local governments and stakeholders
 - Provide BMP, technical training and assistance
-

Solar Ready II Initiative Partners

National Partners

- Mid-America Regional Council
- National Association of Regional Councils
- Meister Consultants Group
- Council of State Governments

Regional Partners

- CNYRPDB
- DVRPC
- MWCOG
- NCTCOG
- NIRPC
- OKI
- SWFRPC
- TBPRC

Contact Information

Georgia Nesselrode
Mid-America Regional Council
gnessel@marc.org

Mia Colson
National Association of Regional Councils
mia@narc.org

