The event will include promotion through a paid media campaign in August.
- Car Free Day Campaign – For the second year, Commuter Connections and Clean Air Partners will run a co-branded campaign promoting Car Free Day. The campaign will use the Car Free Day video and digital ads to encourage drivers to use alternative modes of transportation and pledge to go car free. Through a social and digital media campaign, individuals will be asked to visit the Car Free Metro DC website and pledge to go car free. The campaign will run in September.
- Social Media – Clean Air Partners continues to be active on social media, pushing organic content around the program's Breathe Easy actions through Facebook and Twitter, coordinating with partners and Board members, and pitching to the media.
