

National Capital Region Emergency Preparedness Council Senior Leader Seminar 2012

METROPOLITAN WASHINGTON
Council of Governments

National Capital Region Emergency Preparedness Council Senior Leader Seminar 2012

- Seminar Purpose

- State, local and tribal governments are at the forefront of the response to catastrophic disasters from all hazards.
- Experience has shown that state and local communities' preparedness and capability to prevent and respond to all disasters and emergencies requires strong, executive leadership.

- Core Capabilities

- Planning
- Individual Preparedness
- NCR Situational Awareness
- Public Information and Warning
- Operational Communications
- Restoration of Lifelines

National Capital Region Emergency Preparedness Council Senior Leader Seminar 2012

- Program Objectives:

- ✓ ID and examine homeland security challenges in this complex and fluid environment.
- ✓ Increase the overall knowledge and awareness of homeland security issues at the policy, strategic and organizational design levels.
- ✓ Discuss potential options to meet homeland security challenges, in practical and sustainable ways.
- ✓ Set the stage for follow-up action by the jurisdiction

National Capital Region Emergency Preparedness Council Senior Leader Seminar 2012

• Jurisdiction Specific Objectives:

- ✓ Enhance the ability of the National Capital Region leaders to respond to a major emergency or disaster.
- ✓ Examine the concepts and response to asymmetric warfare.
- ✓ Examine the coordination, strength and limitations of mutual aid.
- ✓ Instill a common understanding of key homeland security policies, emergency management strategies, authorities, plans and organizational structure.
- ✓ Review and clarify key roles and responsibilities of senior elected and appointed officials.
- ✓ Identify areas of improvement for the emergency management program.
- ✓ Provide information about model practices and lessons learned from around the United States.
- ✓ Establish a baseline understanding of the unique roles and responsibilities of executive leadership in the critical, multi-state, multi-jurisdictional region.

National Capital Region Emergency Preparedness Council Senior Leader Seminar 2012

- Hot Wash (On Target)
- ✓ The discussions were key and the face-to-face networking proved to be effective.
- ✓ Risk, Current Threat Brief, and Risk Reduction Discussions opened the door to great dialogue with the SME panel and audience.
- ✓ Intelligence Fusion and Information Sharing discussions led to positive dialogue regarding interface with the LE community and having the “need to know” and “nice to know” information disseminated appropriately.

National Capital Region Emergency Preparedness Council Senior Leader Seminar 2012

- Hot Wash (Sustainment/Improvement)
- Continue discussions, training and exercises in the area of response to cyber attacks and coordination/interface with elected officials in the Executive Decision-making process.
- “Asymmetric Warfare” - Continue discussions, training and exercises in this critical area.
- More T&E regarding planning, deliberate decision-making, and response/recovery decisions at the elected official/policy level.