

Green Streets Workshop

Best Practices Around the Region and the Country

DRAFT AGENDA

WORKSHOP ON GREEN STREETS

Presentations and Discussion on Overcoming Implementation Challenges and Maximizing Benefits of Green Streets in the Washington, DC Metro Region and Beyond
Monday, July 28, 2014

11:30 am - 12:30 pm - Networking Lunch

12:30 - 4:30 pm Workshop

Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments
777 North Capitol Street NE, Washington, DC
Training Center - 1st Floor

Networking Lunch

11:30 am - 12:30 pm

Welcome

12:30 - 12:35 pm Steve Walz, Director, Department of Environmental Programs,
Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments

Background on the Workshop

12:35 - 12:40 pm Michael Farrell, National Capital Region Transportation Planning Board
Staff

Keynote: A Green Street Perspective from another Region - Philadelphia's Green Street Program used Partnerships to Overcome Implementation Challenges

12:40 - 1:00 pm Jessica Noon, City of Philadelphia Water Department

1:00 - 1:10 pm Questions and Comments

Portland's Green Streets Challenges and Successes

1:10 - 1:40 pm Emily Hauth, Portland, OR Sustainable Stormwater Management

1:40 - 1:55 pm Questions and Comments

1:55 - 2:10 pm Brief Break

Green Streets in an Urban Context

2:10 - 2:30 pm Meredith Upchurch, District of Columbia Department of Transportation

2:30 - 2:45 pm Earl Eutsler, District of Columbia Urban Forestry Administration

2:45 - 2:55 pm Questions and Comments

Green Streets in a Suburban Context

2:55 - 3:10 pm Russell Carroll, Prince George's County Department of Public Works & Transportation

3:10 - 3:25 pm Christin Jolicoeur, Arlington County Department of Environmental Services

3:25 - 3:35 pm Questions and Comments

Green Streets in a Highway Context

3:35 - 3:50 pm Pawan Sarang, Commonwealth of Virginia Department of Transportation

3:50 - 4:00 pm Questions and Comments

Wrap-up Discussion

4:00 - 4:10 pm Michael Farrell, Transportation Planner, MWCOG