

TELEWORK.

SPRING 2011 TOWN HALL MEETING
THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 2011
RONALD REAGAN BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D.C.

WORK SMART
SAVE
BIG

President Barack Obama signed into law the landmark telework bill – Public Law 111-292, The Telework Enhancement Act of 2010. Now it is time to put the law into action and realize the myriad benefits – agency cost savings, sustainability, hiring and retaining valuable employees, improving productivity, and supporting continuity of operations.

Its time to work smart and save big. It's time to telework.

Join us for the Spring Town Hall Meeting on Thursday, April 28, 2011 at the Ronald Reagan Building in Washington, D.C. Consisting of two tracks, the event will address management and technology needs for building, implementing, and measuring telework programs. Hear directly from government leaders on best practices and lessons learned.

Visit www.teleworkexchange.com/townhallmeeting to register today. Registration is complimentary for government employees; industry rates apply.

Conference Details

WHERE:

Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center, Washington, D.C.

WHEN:

Thursday, April 28, 2011
7:30 a.m. - 4:45 p.m. ET

DETAILS:

Complimentary to government employees; Industry rates apply

QUESTIONS:

Contact Whitney Hewson
(703) 883-9000 ext. 130

WHAT TO EXPECT:

The Fall 2010 Town Hall Meeting was the largest Town Hall Meeting to date with more than 750 attendees, of which 59 percent were new to the Town Hall Meetings, and more than 150 Federal agencies were represented.