Type in your starting and ending locations or type of destination and any special needs you might have. This will return a list of service providers you can contact.

The screenshot shows the 'ADVANCED SEARCH' section of the reach a ride website. It includes a navigation bar with links for HOME, ABOUT US, SEARCH, FAQ, and CONTACT US. Below the navigation bar, there is a heading 'ADVANCED SEARCH' and a brief explanation: 'On this page, you can search by your starting and ending addresses and any special needs you have to find transportation providers who meet your exact needs.' A note states: 'It is not necessary to enter address information, but if you do, enter as much as you know. Enter both zip codes or both cities. You will get the best results if you enter both zip codes.' The form is divided into two main sections: 'Enter your Starting Address' and 'Enter your Destination Address'. Each section contains fields for 'Starting Street Address', 'Starting City', 'Starting State' (a dropdown menu), and 'Starting Zip Code'. The destination section has similar fields for 'Destination Street Address', 'Destination City', 'Destination State' (a dropdown menu), and 'Destination Zip Code'.
