**The CBPC committee will hold a business meeting from 10:00 to 10:30 a.m. Lunch will be available for participants afterward.*

INTRODUCTIONS, OPENING REMARKS

(10:30)

Penelope A. Gross, CBPC Chair, Fairfax County Supervisor

BRIEF REMARKS BY INVITED PARTICIPANTS

(10:35)

The following representatives will be participating in this forum:

- Jeff Corbin , Senior Advisor to the EPA Administrator, EPA Region III
- Nicholas DiPasquale, Director, Chesapeake Bay Program Office
- Hamid Karimi, Deputy Director, District Department of the Environment
- James Davis-Martin, Chesapeake Bay Coordinator, Virginia Dept. of Environmental Quality
- Robert Summers, Maryland Secretary of the Environment

The representatives have been asked to highlight the progress being made toward meeting water restoration goals and to note any key initiatives in their jurisdictions/agencies.

OPEN DIALOGUE

(10:50)

CBPC Members will discuss with the federal and state representatives the progress they have made toward meeting the Bay TMDL and local water quality restoration goals, and highlight key challenges. All the participants will discuss ways to increase collaboration between local governments and the states and EPA in addressing these matters.

CLOSING REMARKS

(11:55)

Chair Gross will summarize key points from the dialogue, noting areas of agreement and recommended action items for COG's local governments, the states and EPA.

ADJOURNMENT 12:00
