

Regional Transportation Priorities Plan

For the National Capital Region

Purpose of the Plan

An aerial photograph of a city street intersection. The street has multiple lanes with white lane markings and arrows. A yellow taxi is driving in the foreground. There are several other cars, including a white sedan and a dark car. The street is surrounded by trees and buildings. A semi-transparent dark box is overlaid on the center of the image, containing white text.

The Regional Transportation Priorities Plan aims to identify strategies with the greatest potential to respond to our most significant transportation challenges.

REGIONAL GOALS

Based on the TPB Vision

CHALLENGES

Standing in the way of achieving our goals

STRATEGIES

With the greatest potential to respond to challenges

Near Term Strategies

On-Going Strategies

Long Term Strategies

A mix of technical work, public outreach, and stakeholder feedback provided input into the development of the Plan

Priorities

The three priorities in this Plan are like building blocks, all essential in achieving our shared goals.

Move More People More Efficiently

Alleviate Congestion and Crowding and Accommodate Future Growth

Strengthen Public Confidence and Ensure Fairness

Pursue Greater Accountability, Efficiency, and Accessibility

Meet Existing Obligations

Maintain the Transportation System We Already Have

Key Principles

---

The RTPP priorities are intended to:

Be “within reach” both financially and politically

Achieve greater efficiency by making better use of our existing infrastructure, and packaging complementary strategies

Encourage area leaders to consider regional needs when developing projects
