12:45 PM 3. DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CLIMATE PROJECTIONS AND SCENARIO DEVELOPMENT
Kate Johnson, District Department of Energy and Environment

District Department of Energy and Environment released a report that identifies the likely impacts of climate change on the District of Columbia. It is the first step of a multi-phase project led by DOEE to develop a citywide climate adaptation and preparedness plan for the District. The climate change projections provided in the report will allow the District to assess its vulnerabilities and risks in the face of a changing climate and to identify strategies that will help the city adapt and prepare.

Recommended action: Receive briefing.

1:10 PM      4. ANNUAL PROGRESS REPORT
Maia Davis, COG DEP

Staff will present the fifth annual progress report titled Portraits of Progress. The report includes progress toward meeting regional climate and energy goals and a compilation of goals and projects across the region for net zero energy, net zero waste and zero emission vehicles.

Recommended action: Approve report for submittal to the COG Board.

1:25 PM      5. CLIMATE AND ENERGY AWARDS
Glenna Tinney, ACPAC Chair
Maia Davis, COG DEP

Last year the Air and Climate Public Advisory Committee completed a successful pilot of the regional Climate and Energy Awards. CEEPC and ACPAC supported continuation of the awards program in 2015. Awardees were recognized at the COG Board Meeting in October. The ACPAC Chair and COG staff will provide a briefing on the 2015 Awards Program and recipients and discuss recommendations for the 2016 Awards.

Recommended action: Recognize Award recipients and discuss 2016 Awards recommendations.

1:40 PM      6. MULTI-SECTOR WORKGROUP – INTERIM REPORT
Steve Walz, COG Director of Environmental Programs

ICF has completed the Interim Report supporting the work of COG’s Multi-sector GHG Working Group (MSWG). The report assesses the emission reduction potential of the emission reduction strategies identified by MSWG members. Public comment on the Interim Report starts on November 16. Before release for public comment, staff are soliciting input from COG Policy Boards, including CEEPC.

Recommended action: Provide comments on the Interim Report.
