B. Termination for Default [Breach or Cause]

If the SUBRECIPIENT fails to perform in the manner called for in this Contract, or if the SUBRECIPIENT fails to comply with any other provisions of the Contract, COG may terminate this Contract for default. Termination shall be effected by serving a notice of termination on the SUBRECIPIENT setting forth the manner in which the Contract is in default. The SUBRECIPIENT will only be paid the contract price for services performed in accordance with the manner of performance set forth in the Contract. If it is later determined by COG that the SUBRECIPIENT had an excusable reason for not performing, such as strike, fire, or flood, events which are beyond the control of the SUBRECIPIENT, COG, after setting up a new delivery of performance schedule, may allow the SUBRECIPIENT to continue work, or treat the termination as a termination for convenience.

C. COG in its sole discretion may, in the case of termination for breach or default, allow the SUBRECIPIENT ten (10) working days in which to cure the defect. In such case, the notice of termination will state the time period in which cure is permitted and other appropriate conditions.

If the SUBRECIPIENT fails to remedy to COG's satisfaction the breach or default of any of the terms, covenants, or conditions of this Contract within the ten (10) working days after receipt by the SUBRECIPIENT of written notice from COG setting forth the nature of said breach or default, COG shall have the right to terminate the Contract without further obligation to the SUBRECIPIENT. Any such termination for default shall not in any way operate to preclude COG from also pursuing all available remedies against the SUBRECIPIENT and its sureties for said breach or default.

D. In the event COG elects to waive its remedies for any breach by the SUBRECIPIENT of any covenant, term or condition of this Contract, such waiver by COG shall not limit COG's remedies for any succeeding breach of that or any other term, covenant, or condition of this Contract.

XII. Civil Rights Requirements - 29 U.S.C. § 62, 42 U.S.C. § 2000, 42 U.S.C. § 602, 42 U.S.C. § 12112, 42 U.S.C. § 12132, 49 U.S.C. § 5332

The SUBRECIPIENT agrees to take affirmative action to ensure that applicants are employed, and that employees are treated during employment without regard to their race, color, creed, national origin, sex, or age. Such action shall include, but not be limited to, the following: employment, upgrading, demotion or transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertising, layoff or termination; rates of pay or other forms of compensation; and selection for training, including apprenticeship. A. Disputes

Disputes arising in the performance of this Contract which are not resolved by agreement of the parties shall be decided in writing by the COG Executive Director or his/her designee. The decision of the Executive Director or his/her designee shall be binding upon the SUBRECIPIENT, and the SUBRECIPIENT shall abide by the decision.

B. Performance During Dispute

Unless otherwise directed by COG, the SUBRECIPIENT shall continue performance under this Contract while matters in dispute are being resolved.

C. Claim for Damages

Should either party to the Contract suffer injury or damage to person or property because of any act or omission of the party or of any of its employees, agents or others for acts it is legally liable, a claim for damages therefore shall be made in writing to such other party within a reasonable time after the first observance of such injury or damage.

E. Rights and Remedies

The duties and obligations imposed by the Contract and the rights and remedies available there under shall be in addition to and not a limitation of any duties, obligations, rights and remedies otherwise imposed or available by law. No action or failure to act by COG or the SUBRECIPIENT shall constitute a waiver or any right or duty afforded to them under the Contract, nor shall any such action or failure to act constitute an approval of or acquiescence in any breach there under, except as may be specifically agreed in writing.

XIV. Patent, Rights in Data and Proprietary Information.

A. Rights in Data

The following requirements apply to each contract involving experimental, developmental or research work:

1. The term "subject data" used in this clause means recorded information, whether or not copyrighted, that is delivered or specified to be delivered under the contract. The term includes graphic or pictorial delineation in media such as drawings or photographs; text in specifications or related performance or design-type documents; CDs or flash drives (thumbdrives) containing data; and any other information retained in computer memory. Examples include, but are not limited to: computer software, engineering drawings and associated lists, specifications, standards, process sheets, manuals, technical reports, catalog item identifications, and related information. The term "subject data" does not include financial reports, cost analyses, and similar information incidental to contract administration.

2. The following restrictions apply to all subject data first produced in the performance of the contract to which this Attachment has been added:

As used in the previous sentence, "for Federal Government purposes," means use only for the direct purposes of the Federal Government. Without the copyright owner's consent, the Federal Government may not extend its federal license to any other party.
 - i. Any subject data developed under that contract, whether or not a copyright has been obtained; and
 - ii. Any rights of copyright purchased by the Purchaser or the SUBRECIPIENT using federal assistance.

B. Patent Rights

The following requirements apply to each contract involving experimental, developmental, or research work:

2. Unless the Federal Government later makes a contrary determination in writing, irrespective of the SUBRECIPIENT status (a large business, small business, state government or state instrumentality, local government, nonprofit organization, institution of higher education, individual), the Purchaser and the SUBRECIPIENT agree to take the necessary actions to provide, through the federal funding agency, those rights in that invention due the Federal Government as described in the U.S. Department of Commerce regulations, "Rights to Inventions Made by Nonprofit Organizations and Small Business Firms Under Government Grants, Contracts and Cooperative Agreements," 37 C.F.R. XVII. Interest of the SUBRECIPIENT

The SUBRECIPIENT covenants that it has presently no financial interest, shall not acquire any financial interest, direct or indirect, which would conflict in any manner or degree with the performance of services required to be performed under this Contract. The SUBRECIPIENT further covenants that, in the performance of this Contract, no person having any such interest shall be employed.

XVIII. Payment

Payments to the Contractor pursuant to this Contract shall be made no later than 30 days after COG's receipt of a proper invoice from the Contractor.

Electronic Payment means the payment of money to a vendor by electronic means, including by means of a Purchase Card (P-card) or Automated Clearing House (ACH) funds transfer method.

COG has implemented a P-Card Program utilizing MASTERCARD networks. Purchases from this contract will be made utilizing COG's P-Card.

Contractors will receive payment from the P-Card in the same manner as other credit card purchases. The payments typically are transferred within 48 hours.

Accordingly, contractors must presently have the ability to accept these P-Cards or take whatever steps necessary to implement their ability before the start of the contract term, or contract award by the COG. COG reserves the right to revise this program as necessary.

In rare cases, ACH transactions will be acceptable as a form of payment to our vendors. Please keep in mind the turn-around time on ACH transactions can be as long as 30 days.

XIX. Allowable Costs

Only those costs which are consistent with Title 2 Part 200 of the Code of Federal Regulations shall be reimbursed under this Contract.

XX. Covenant Against Contingent Fees

The SUBRECIPIENT warrants that it has not employed any person to solicit or secure this Contract upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee. Breach of warranty shall give the Contracts Officer the right to terminate this Contract or, in his discretion, to deduct from the Contract price or consideration the amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fees. This warranty shall not apply to commissions payable by the SUBRECIPIENT upon contracts or sales secured or made through a bona fide established commercial or selling agency maintained by the SUBRECIPIENT for the purpose of securing business.

XXI. Indemnification

The SUBRECIPIENT, acting as an independent SUBRECIPIENT, shall hold COG harmless from and shall be solely responsible, where found liable, for the payment of any and all claims for loss, personal injury, death, property damage, or otherwise, arising out of any act of omission or negligence of its employees or agents in connection with the performance of this work.

XXII. Severability

It is understood and agreed by the parties that if any of these provisions shall contravene, or be invalid under, the laws of the particular state, county or jurisdiction where used, such contravention or invalidity shall not invalidate the whole agreement, but the Contract shall be construed as of not containing the particular provision or provisions held to be invalid in the said particular state, county or jurisdiction and the rights and obligations of the parties shall be construed and enforced accordingly.

XXIII. Assignments

This Contract shall not be assigned, sublet or transferred in whole or in part by the SUBRECIPIENT, except with the previous written consent of the COG Contracting Officer or his designee.

XXIV. Entire Agreement

This Contract sets forth the entire understanding of the parties and supersedes all previous agreements, whether oral or in writing, relating to the subject matter hereof. This Contract may only be altered, amended or modified in accordance with Changes Clause of this Contract.

Any confidential or personal information provided by users of the website or other data collection, including but not limited to their names and addresses, shall be protected.
4. COG shall retain control over and ownership of all surveys, web pages, control files and scripts, database schema, and database contents, in addition to all content which is published on or stored by the website or other data collection, unless COG specifically agrees in writing otherwise.
5. No release of any announcements intended for public dissemination concerning the collection or storage of such information by or through the survey, website or other data collection shall occur until COG has given prior written authorization, unless COG specifically agrees in writing otherwise.
6. In the event that information collected or stored by or through the survey, website or other data collection shall be stolen or handled incorrectly, the party(ies) working with COG on the PROJECT shall be responsible for any required notification to persons who have entered personal information in that system and all costs related thereto.

8. At the end of the project or contract, any personal or confidential information shall be given to COG or destroyed, and a certification of destruction provided to COG by the SUBRECIPIENT or other party.

XXVI. COG's Policies and Procedures

When federal law, or any grant conditions, certifications or assurances require COG to utilize competitive procurement procedures for selection of a SUBRECIPIENT, COG's policies and procedures shall govern every aspect of the SUBRECIPIENT selection process, e.g., the solicitation, evaluation, award, and post-award process (including, without limitation, any protest of an award, and the terms and conditions under which a contract may be approved, executed and administered). Any SUBRECIPIENT and potential SUBRECIPIENT will be provided with a copy of such policies and procedures, on request.

XXVII. COG's Information Technology Policy

Contractors that must access COG's Information Technology systems or require a COG login account to perform their duties must adhere to COG's Information Technology Policies and Procedures. Such contractors will receive a copy of the policies and procedures prior to receiving access to COG's IT systems.

XXX. DBE Assurance

The SUBRECIPIENT shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, or sex in the performance of this Contract. The SUBRECIPIENT shall carry out applicable requirements of 49 C.F.R. Part 26 in the award and administration of USDOT-assisted contracts. Failure by the SUBRECIPIENT to carry out these requirements is a material breach of this Contract, which may result in the termination of this Contract or such other remedy as the COG deems appropriate.

XXXI. Audits

Per the Enhanced Mobility Circular, COG as the Designated Recipient for Enhanced Mobility funds will collect A-133 audit reports from the SUBRECIPIENT receiving more than $750,000 in federal funds. At a minimum, the SUBRECIPIENT is required to bring to COGTPB's attention any audit findings relevant to its use of FTA funds. The SUBRECIPIENT is not subject to A-133 audit requirements and may require additional monitoring, in a format elected by COG, to ensure compliance.

XXXII. FFATA Reporting

- A. The Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act ("FFATA") requires prime recipients of federal grants and contracts to report sub-award and executive compensation data. COG is the prime recipient of federal awards for the purposes of this policy and is responsible for reporting sub-award data.
- B. COG and first-tier sub-awardees are required to maintain current registration in the System for Awards Management ("SAM") as well as obtain a DUNS number. COG is responsible for filing the report in the FSRS system, not sub-awardees. However, sub-
