

AGENDA
TPB CITIZENS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Emmet Tydings, 2006 CAC Chair

Thursday, June 15, 2006, 6:00 – 8:00 pm
Council of Governments, Training Center (Main Floor)
777 North Capitol Street, NE
Washington, DC 20002

6:00 – 6:10 Introductions and New Business

6:10 – 6:15 Staff Update on Recent Public Involvement Activities

6:15 - 7:15 Discussion on Public Outreach Efforts Related to the TPB Regional Mobility and Accessibility Study (RMAS)

Larry Martin, CAC vice chair and chair of the CAC's Working Group on RMAS, will lead a discussion on plans to conduct expanded outreach using the presentation "What if the Washington Region Grew Differently?"

PLEASE NOTE: For the discussion at the meeting, Larry Martin has asked that CAC members try to bring the following information:

- Information on any groups or government organizations that conduct informational or educational presentations to the public on transportation and land-use; and
- Suggestions of organizations that may be interested in receiving a TPB staff presentation on regional mobility and accessibility. Such groups might include civic associations, business roundtables, community organizations and even town councils.

7:15 - 7:40 Briefing and Discussion on a Potential Transportation/Land Use Incentives Program

At the April CAC meeting, Ron Kirby gave a briefing on transportation-land use incentive programs currently underway in other metropolitan areas. At the June meeting, the CAC will be briefed on experience to date with these incentive programs, and on alternative approaches for strengthening the linkages between transportation and land use planning in the Washington region.

7:40 – 7:50 Upcoming TPB Agenda

Ron Kirby will brief the committee on the TPB's June agenda.
