

Local governments working together for a better metropolitan region

Call for Participants
Workshop on Reestablishing the Regional Emergency Support Function #1 (Transportation)
within the National Capital Region Homeland Security Program

DATE: Wednesday, April 19th, 2006

TIME: 10 AM to 12 noon

LOCATION: COG, 777 North Capitol Street, NE
Washington, DC
Meeting Rooms 4/5

To Emergency Management and Transportation Stakeholders of the National Capital Region:

The Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments is hosting a Regional Emergency Support Function (RESF-1 Transportation) Workshop on Wednesday, April 19, 2006 from 10 AM to 12 noon. The purpose of the workshop is to kickoff reestablishing the RESF-1 activity within the NCR Homeland Security Program. The workshop will be led by RESF-1 Chair Natalie Jones-Best of the District Department of Transportation (DDOT), and will provide an opportunity for stakeholder input on:

- The scope and mission of the RESF-1 transportation emergency preparedness program
- Short-term and long-term RESF-1 priorities
- Identifying agencies and individuals who will need to participate in the RESF-1 Committee as it resumes regular meetings in May.

Who Should Attend:

Participants at this workshop should have a strong background in the transportation and emergency management field, including transportation preparedness activities. Participants should have a strong understanding of their department's emergency transportation capabilities, programs, and be at a level in their organization to carry the committee's message.

RSVP:

Please provide the names of kick-off meeting participants to:

Robert Young – COG RESF-1 Coordinator
ryoung@mwcoq.org
(202) 962-3278

by Friday, April 7th, 2006. Robert can provide answers to any additional questions you may have regarding RESF-1.