Background

Car Free Day is an internationally recognized event which started in Europe in 2000 as a day for residents to leave their cars at home, and instead get around by cleaner and more sustainable methods of travel for both commute and non-commute purposes. Travel modes include public transportation, bicycling, walking, and scootering. In the Washington, DC region Car Free Day began in 2008 and is coordinated by Commuter Connections and its network partners. Car Free Day in the National Capital region also includes the option to participate by traveling “car lite” (carpool or vanpool) and also teleworking.

A regional marketing campaign promoted the Car Free Day event held on September 22, 2022, which helped to yield 4,054 pledges, a 35 percent increase over the previous year.

Three main objectives of the Car Free Day marketing campaign were to:

1. Use the event as an opportunity to promote alternative modes of transportation for both commute and non-commute trips.
2. Encourage commuters and the general public to take the online pledge to use car free or car-lite travel methods on Car Free Day.
3. Measure and report impacts, as part of the Commuter Connections Regional TDM Mass Marketing program.

Proclamation

The Car Free Day 2022 Proclamation signing took place at the National Capital Region Transportation Planning Board (TPB) meeting on July 20, 2022. Pamela Sebesky, City of Manassas Vice Mayor and TPB Chair, signed the enlarged proclamation and officially decreed September 22, 2022 as Car Free Day in the Washington, DC region.

2022 Proclamation

WHEREAS, the National Capital Region Transportation Planning Board (TPB) is the Metropolitan Planning Organization for the Washington, DC region; and

WHEREAS, the TPB through its Commuter Connections program organizes and promotes the annual Car Free Day event along with its jurisdictional network members throughout the region; and

WHEREAS, Car Free Day invites those who live and work in the region to telework and try alternative forms of transportation such as transit, bicycling, walking, and “car-lite” methods such as carpools and vanpools; and

WHEREAS, Car Free Day benefits the National Capital Region through improved air quality, mobility, energy conservation, and reduced parking demands; and

WHEREAS, Car Free Day corresponds with the culmination of European Mobility Week’s celebration of sustainable mobility from September 16-22, 2022.

NOW THEREFORE, be it resolved that the National Capital Region Transportation Planning Board:

1. Proclaims Car Free Day throughout the Washington Metropolitan region to be observed on Thursday, September 22, 2022; and
2. Encourages those who live and work in the region to take the pledge to be Car Free or Car-lite at www.CarFreeMetroDC.org; and
3. Acknowledges TPB member jurisdictions who have adopted similar proclamations in support of Car Free Day 2022.

Chair, National Capital Region Transportation Planning Board

National Capital Region
Transportation Planning Board

Local Jurisdictional Proclamations

Many local jurisdictions in the region held their own Car Free Day proclamations in 2022.

WHEREAS, the National Capital Region Transportation Planning Board (TPB) is the Metropolitan Planning Organization for the Washington Region; and

WHEREAS, the TPB, through its Commuter Connections program, promotes and organizes the annual Car Free Day event along with its network members throughout the Washington area; and

WHEREAS, Car Free Day invites Washington region residents to try alternative forms of transportation such as transit, bicycling and walking, and "car-lite" methods such as carpools and vanpools, and teleworking; and

WHEREAS, Car Free Day benefits Rockville and the National Capital Region through improved air quality, reduced traffic congestion and parking demands, and the conservation of energy; and

WHEREAS, Car Free Day is a special day to rediscover Rockville without a car and reconnect with fellow residents, businesses, etc., and remind people about their transportation options, environmental impacts, and other quality of life issues that are within their control.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Mayor and Council of the City of Rockville, Maryland do hereby proclaim Thursday, September 22, 2022, as Car Free Day throughout the City of Rockville; and encourage all residents to go car-free or car-lite (carpool, vanpool) on Thursday, September 22, 2022, and pledge to be Car Free or Car-Lite by visiting www.carfreemetrodc.org.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Car Free Day is celebrated in 2,000 cities and in 46 countries, with a common goal of reducing the number of cars on streets, reducing traffic congestion, improving parking demands, and overall mobility; and

WHEREAS, Car Free Day benefits the National Capital Region, including the City of Manassas, by improving traffic-related air pollution, by reducing noise, and by encouraging energy conservation; and

WHEREAS, Car Free Day provides health benefits not only by improving environmental conditions, but also by promoting active transportation such as walking and biking; and

WHEREAS, Car Free Day benefits the National Capital Region, including the City of Manassas, by enhancing the quality of life for its residents and by creating healthy and vibrant communities; and

WHEREAS, Car Free Day supports the City of Manassas mobility vision, which seeks to provide and promote a multi-modal transportation system throughout the City; and

WHEREAS, Car Free Day supports the City of Manassas strategic plan by increasing pedestrian, bike, and traffic safety awareness; and

WHEREAS, the National Capital Region Transportation Planning Board proclaimed September 22, 2022, as Car Free Day throughout the Washington Metropolitan Region; and

WHEREAS, the City of Manassas and partners will celebrate Car Free Day on Saturday, September 17 at the Farmers Market with information from the City and partners on the topic of transportation.

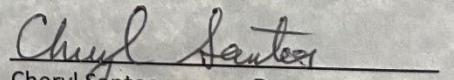

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Michelle Davis-Younger, Mayor of the City of Manassas, Virginia and on behalf of the Manassas City Council, hereby proclaim September 22, 2022, as in the City of Manassas and encourage all citizens to pledge to be Car Free or Car-lite on September 22nd by visiting www.carfreemetrodcc.org, and also to try alternative modes of transportation throughout the year.

Media

Car Free Day challenged drivers to leave their cars home for the day and go car free or car-lite. The campaign promoted the use of alternative modes of transportation such as taking transit, carpooling, vanpooling, bicycling, scootering and walking. Participating by teleworking was also included. The event encouraged workers, residents, and students to take the Car Free Day pledge to improve mobility and air quality. The campaign also engaged employers, area universities, and the general public.

The Car Free Day media buy consisted of radio spots, text messages, , a YouTube video, sponsored article, social media influence, and digital banner ads. Other efforts to promote Car Free Day included posters, social media and earned media.

Can you go just ONE DAY without your car? Try it on Car Free Day, September 22.

Commuter Connections, the regional network of transportation organizations coordinated by the Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments, challenges the area's drivers to park their vehicles for one day a year — and this year, "Car Free Day" is Thursday, September 22.

You won't be alone in the challenge: Commuter Connections has a long list of transportation alternatives to make it easy to get around, and, best of all, those who pledge to participate in Car Free Day will receive a $30 gift promocode and a 24-hour pass for unlimited 45-minute rides via classic Capital Bikeshare. All who take the pledge will also be entered into a raffle for a Samsung tablet, gift cards to popular restaurants, annual memberships, transit passes and more.

Take the pledge, even if you're already car free.
Car Free Day is a worldwide event that encourages greener methods of travel; meaning ways to get around other than driving alone by car. Commuter Connections hosts Car Free Day in the Washington, DC region to bring awareness to the benefits of travel options such as transit, bicycling and walking; and also telework for people who can work from home. Carpooling and vanpooling count too, we call that "car-lite" since they are both lighter on the wallet and the environment than driving alone in a car.
Reduce your Carbon Footprint
Using more sustainable ways to get around helps reduce harmful greenhouse gas emissions and traffic congestion. The more people who travel using bicycles, buses, trains, carpools and vanpools, the fewer pollutants are released into the atmosphere.

sherradanielle #Sponsored Let's kick the First Day of Fall off helping the Earth by celebrating #CarFreeDay! Join Me and @CleanAirPartner as we enjoy the nice fall temperatures and leave our cars parked as we help improve the air quality. Did you know using more sustainable ways to get around helps reduce harmful greenhouse gas emissions and traffic congestion? Taking the bus, Metrorail or commuter trains, a bicycle or walking are great alternatives to go Car Free. Join me and take the pledge to go Car Free on September 22.

By taking the pledge we put fewer pollutants in the atmosphere. Taking the pledge is easy: visit <https://www.carfreemetrodc.org/> and register (link in bio). Once you take the Online Pledge, Commuter Connections will automatically enter you into a raffle for all sorts of great prizes. Let me know if you are taking the pledge this Thursday in the comments. Check out my instastories to see how I plan to go #carfreeday2022 #dcblogger #dcbloggers #tysonscorner #dcigers #monday_sept #cleanair #dmvblogger chelseyeatsdc It's that time of the year again- Car Free Day! 🙌

#Ad @CleanAirPartner is dedicated to educating and empowering individuals and organizations in the metropolitan Baltimore-Washington region to take simple actions to improve air quality, reducing pollution, and protecting public health. Going car-free is one of the most impactful actions you can take to improve air quality. There are a number of ways to get around town- you could take the bus, metro or commuter trains, a bicycle or scooter, and walk or run. You can even telework if that's an option for you. Carpooling and vanpooling count too! When you take the pledge, you'll be entered into a raffle to win all sorts of great prizes like a Capital Bikeshare annual membership, a monthly SmarTrip card, and even a Samsung tablet. Celebrate Car Free Day on September 22, 2022 and go to <https://www.carfreemetrodc.org> to sign up!

APPENDIX B Emissions Impacts

Emissions Impacts

COG/TBP staff prepared a Car Free Day emissions impacts analysis which documents the method used to estimate mobile/on-road emissions (in tons) saved on Car Free Day 2022. The emissions savings were based on pledged vehicle miles traveled (VMT) savings as stated by participants using non-single occupant vehicle modes of travel on September 22, 2022. Emissions rates developed by EPA's MOVES model were used.

National Capital Region
Transportation Planning Board

Nitrogen oxides (NOx) are the chemical in automotive exhaust; volatile organic compounds (VOC) are ground-water contaminants; greenhouse gases (GHG) are released into the atmosphere which absorb and emit radiation; and particulate matter (PM) are microscopic matter suspended in the earth's atmosphere.
