

CLIMATE, ENERGY, AND ENVIRONMENT POLICY COMMITTEE CELEBRATING 10 YEARS OF CLIMATE ACTION

November 14, 2018
10:00 A.M. – 12:00 P.M.
Ronald F. Kirby Training Center

Chair: Mary Lehman, Prince George's County

DRAFT AGENDA

- 10:00 A.M. 1. CALL TO ORDER, INTRODUCTIONS, CHAIR'S REMARKS, APPROVE MINUTES
Mary Lehman, CEEPC Chair

- 10:05 A.M. 2. RETROSPECTIVE ROUNDTABLE: CELEBRATING STATE, REGIONAL, LOCAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS ON CLIMATE CHANGE
Jeff King and Maia Davis, COG Climate and Energy Team Staff

In November 2008, COG adopted its regional program on climate change. Since that time, states, COG, local members, and regional stakeholders have made great strides in adopting policies and implementing programs to address emissions of greenhouse gases and improve economic productivity. COG's climate and energy team staff will lead a discussion highlighting many of the achievements made in the last 10 years across the region.

- 10:30 A.M. 3. METROPOLITAN WASHINGTON AT RISK: PREDICTING AND PREPARING FOR THE NEW NORMAL
Professor Jim Kinter, Director, Center for Ocean-Land-Atmosphere Studies; Chair, Department of Atmospheric, Oceanic & Earth Sciences; Professor, Climate Dynamics.

What is science telling us about the risks and potential impacts of climate change? What scale of actions will be needed to address climate change in the coming decades? Professor Kinter will give a presentation on the latest climate science, discussing potential impacts to the COG region and mid-Atlantic, as well as emission scenarios to help guide discussions on regional emission reduction needs and targets.

11:00 A.M. 4. VISIONING FOR THE NEXT 10 YEARS: GOALS AND STRATEGIES TO GUIDE FUTURE ACTIONS

Current Chair Mary Lehman

Vice-Chair Daniel Sze

Past CEEPC Chairs: Jay Fiset, Roger Berliner, Penny Gross

CEEPC leadership will guide a strategic discussion on visioning climate action for the next 10 years. The panel and members will help identify what goals and actions may be needed to address the new normal, and guide staff on preparing for the climate and energy action planning process for post-2020, 2030 and beyond.

11:45 P.M. 6. ADJOURN, NETWORK, AND CELEBRATE

Lunch and celebration refreshments will be made available starting at 11:45.

The next CEEPC meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, January 23, 2019 at 10am.
