

MWCOG's Air and Climate Public Advisory Committee
2019 Roster - Final

Last Name	First Name	City	State	Background
Failley	Tara	Washington	DC	Master of Public Health (focused on Environmental Health Science & Policy) and more than ten years of applied experience. Interested in raising awareness of the health impacts of climate change, energy issues, and air quality.
Kambour	Andrew	Washington	DC	Senior Policy Advisor for Energy with The Nature Conservancy. ACPAC Member since 2011. 2014 ACPAC Chair, 2013 ACPAC Vice Chair.
Lewis	Hilary	Washington	DC	Communications manager at Earthworks, communicating energy program goals and accomplishments to the public. BA in International Relations and Environmental Studies, minor Latin American Studies. Clean Energy Leadership Institute Fellow.
Rah	Hyon	Washington	DC	Facilitated the planning and implementation of sustainable building and urban development projects around the world. dual master's in architecture and water management, and certifications in green buildings (LEED AP), sustainable infrastructure (ENV SP), and eco-tourism (Green Globe).
Raher	Patrick	Washington	DC	Forty years' experience as an attorney in Washington, DC practicing in the area of stationary and mobile source law. Served 3 terms on the EPA Clean Air Advisory Committee. Interested in advancing opportunities to improve air quality and create jobs.
Toles O'Laughlin*	Tamara	Washington	DC; MD	Executive Director, Maryland Environmental Health Network responsible for overall management of staff, partnerships, and strategic direction of the network. Masters in Environmental Law & Policy in addition to a Juris Doctorate. 2017-2018 ACPAC Vice Chair.
Goldman	Gretchen	Takoma Park	MD	Analyst with the Union of Concerned Scientists. PhD in environmental engineering focused on link between ambient air pollution and human health effects. 2015-2016 ACPAC Vice Chair. 2017-2018 ACPAC Chair.
Howes	John	Rockville	MD	Works on energy and environment policy for Redland Energy Group. Background in journalism, labor union management, public/governmental affairs, marketing, business planning, policy analysis, conflict resolution.
Lewis	Robin	Camp Springs	MD	Member of Southern Green Line Coalition promoting sustainable urban development around Metro stations. MS in Sustainable Urban Planning from GWU focusing on climate change planning and environmental justice.
Mazur	Sarah	Takoma Park	MD	Helps manage EPA's Sustainable and Healthy Communities Research Program. Previous experience working on EPA's air and climate regulations and encouraging environmental stewardship by the chemical industry. Member of Takoma Park Committee on the Environment. Masters degrees - Public Policy, Environmental Management (Duke).
Norris	Jacqueline	Prince George's Co.	MD	Environmental Justice advocate working with EPA Environmental Justice Office as a community stakeholder and subject matter expert.
Rodriguez	Ron V.	Silver Spring	MD	Founder of Innov8energy, participant Montgomery Co. Sustainability Working Group, founding member of U.S Green Building Council Montgomery Co. chapter, served on Rep. Donna Edwards Small Business Advisory Council.
Crane	Kelsey	Manassas	VA	Interested in shaping climate and energy policy in the region. Around 10 years of experience working as a community organizer and educator around climate issues. BA in Environmental Science and BS in Geographic Information Science.
Ortiz	Guillermo	Woodbridge	VA	Researcher for Center for American Progress. CELI fellow. Worked as a Leg. correspondant. B.A. Global Environmental Change and Sustainability.
Pien	Natalie	Leesburg	VA	Former K-12 school teacher, Chair of 350 Loudoun. Education: BA Biology, U of PA; MS, Environmental Sciences, UVA focusing on Ecology; MEd, Education, Marymount U.; Climate Change course at U of Melbourne.
Sobin	Rodney	Fairfax County	VA	Interested and experience in air quality and climate issues and their relation to economic development, technological innovation, health, and environmental protection. Currently at the National Association of State Energy Officials. Formerly at Alliance to Save Energy and Virginia DEQ air division.
Thoumi	Gabriel	Arlington	VA	Director Capital Markets at Climate Advisers where he manages teams providing global financial analysis for mitigating systemic climate risk while advising on greening capital markets. He has an MBA and MSc from the University of Michigan.
Tinney	Glenna	Fairfax County	VA	Retired Navy Captain. Currently a social worker. Environmental activist with Sierra Club. Clean Air Partners Board. 2014 ACPAC Vice Chair, 2015 and 2016 ACPAC Chair.

* Chair

** Vice Chair